ClimateCraft | Custom Air Handlers

VHF Sales, Inc.

PRODUCT OVERVIEW

Engineered for demanding air management applications

ClimateCraft custom air handling units are designed for indoor and outdoor installation, offering reliability, quality, and flexibility for commercial and institutional projects.

4,000–200,000+ CFM

Available airflow capacity range

DESIGNED AROUND YOUR PROJECT

- Flexible size, footprint, and configuration
- Extreme-duty and high-static applications with low leakage
- Integrated thermal break and specialized cabinet construction
- Choice of galvanized, aluminum, or stainless steel materials
- Multiple design, component, and coating options

ClimateCraft

Source: ClimateCraft | climatecraft.com

ClimateCraft | Custom Air Handlers

VHF Sales, Inc.

CABINET & MATERIAL OPTIONS

CABINET DESIGN

- Exclusive roll-formed joint panel construction and innovative bolted standing seam construction with integrated thermal break.

CONSTRUCTION MATERIALS

- Galvanized steel, aluminum, or stainless steel.

FINISH OPTIONS

- Powder-coated aluminum or steel; galvanized pre-painted steel.

INDUSTRY STANDARDS

- AHRI-certified coils
- Miami-Dade high-velocity hurricane zone requirements*
- Optional IBC seismic certification and OSHPD pre-approval

* Aluminum panel construction excluded from the noted hurricane-zone and seismic / OSHPD provisions